

PRESS RELEASE

Carbonium involved in the design of the Shanghai carbon market

Paris, December 9, 2013. Carbonium reinforces its international development by signing a partnership agreement with a consortium led by Sinocarbon Innovation & Investment Co., a major player in carbon finance in China. Carbonium will provide its long-term expertise from the European Union carbon market to contribute to the development of the recently launched Shanghai Environment and Energy Exchange.

At this occasion, Carbonium is pleased to announce its participation to a conference on the emergence of carbon markets in Asia, organized by the Asian Development Bank in Shanghai, on December 10 & 11, 2013, with two presentations.

Philippe Coste, Vice-president of Carbonium will discuss about the last developments regarding possible linkage between the European and Australian carbon markets.

Ban Le, Director for China, will present the perspectives of the Shanghai market based on the first modeling results.

"The future of the CO₂ market is in China and the opportunities are significant. We are strengthening our presence in the region to support our clients and thus confirm our leadership in carbon finance" says Alexandre Borde, CEO of Carbonium.
